

Build your own online fundraising page with

It's the fastest, easiest, and cleverest way to raise money!

Make a page and share it online with your family and friends. Anyone can donate with a credit/debit card from anywhere in the world. Justgiving sends your donations straight to us and reclaims Gift Aid automatically on our behalf.

Building a page is very easy and only takes a few minutes and what's more you don't need any technical expertise!!

Things to consider before building your page

1. What web address are you going to use which you can then direct people to? (e.g. www.justgiving.com/example)
2. What name are you going to give your page? (e.g. Running for RSPCA Bristol & BDCH)
3. Have you thought of a personal message for your page? (optional but advisable)
4. Have you thought of the message you want to add to your automated thank you email? (optional but advisable)
5. Do you have a photo to add to your page? (optional)

IMPORTANT NOTE: If you are joining an organized event such as a half marathon, please ensure that you have confirmed your place in your chosen event BEFORE you create your page.

Share your page

The more you tell people about your page, the more donations you'll attract...

1. Email a link to your fundraising page to everyone in your address book. Ask them to forward it on to everyone they know.
2. Track your fundraising progress on your Facebook profile - use Justgiving's Facebook app: <http://apps.facebook.com/justgiving>.
3. Put a widget and buttons on your blog, website and social profiles. Find them by clicking 'promote this page' on the right of your fundraising page.
4. Keep emailing everyone to update them on your progress - remind them to donate if they haven't already and to send your page to their friends.
5. Let us know how your fundraising's going so we can share your news and good ideas with our other fundraisers.
6. Share your good ideas with Justgiving by emailing suggestions@justgiving.com

The friendly Justgiving helpdesk can answer any questions - just email help@justgiving.net
